

Keeping Truth Fresh

2 Peter 1:12-21

“Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth” (2 Peter 1:12).

Peter wanted to remind his readers of certain truths, even though they knew them. Sometimes as believers we need a “refresher course.” We need to bring to mind the statements of God’s Word so that they might be fresh on our hearts and encouragements to our daily walk.

Thus, consider the following:

As we meet ongoing challenges, we need to remember God’s unfailing help: “Fear thou not...I will strengthen thee: yea, I will help thee, yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of My righteousness” (Isaiah 41:10).

No matter what trouble or trial may come our way, we need to be reminded to trust in God: “My heart trusted in Him, and I am helped” (Psalm 28:7).

No matter what calamitous news may come our way, we need to remember that “what time I am afraid, I will trust in Thee” (Psalm 56:3).

When we pass through the fires of affliction, we need to remember that “the LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and He knoweth them that trust in Him” (Nahum 1:7).

When we are beset with any kind of physical problem, we need to remember that “though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day” (2 Cor. 4:16).

There are so many other wonderful truths that we need to recall. It is so important for us to live in God’s Word: “If ye abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will and it shall be done unto you” (John 15:5).

“Let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly” (Col. 3:16).
