

I Am Willing or Am I?

Philippians 3:4-14

- I am willing to decrease that Christ might increase (John 3:30).
- I am willing to humble myself and be abased, that God might lift me up (Luke 14:11; James 4:10).
- I am willing to count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, even if I must suffer the loss of all things (Phil. 3:8).
- I am willing to be poor, and to make many rich (2 Cor. 6:10).
- I am willing to be delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in my mortal flesh (2 Cor. 4:11).
- I am willing to be content with such things that I have knowing that I have Christ who will never leave me (Heb. 13:5).
- I am willing to be persecuted since I can rejoice that I am counted worthy to suffer shame for His name (Acts 5:41).
- I am willing and not ashamed to share the gospel, for it is the power of God unto salvation to all who will believe (Rom. 1:16).
- I am willing to suffer hardship as a good soldier of Jesus Christ (2 Tim. 2:3).
- I am willing not to be ministered unto, but to minister to others and be a servant to all, even as the Son of Man did for me (Mark 10:43-45).
- I am willing to lay aside every weight and hindrance and every besetting sin so that I might run with patience the race that is set before me (Heb. 12:1).
- I am willing to be a fool for Christ's sake (1 Cor. 4:10).
- I am willing to count not my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy (Acts 20:24).
- I am willing, in God's time, to be absent from the body so I can be present with the Lord (2 Cor. 5:8).
